

Strategic Partnership: ItemPath and Kardex

November 2, 2021 – Ontario, Canada

ItemPath Inc. is partnering with Kardex Remstar LLC to make storage and material handling systems more robust. Together, their goal is to give customers more control over their order processing, warehouse management, and data reporting by improving software capability.

“ItemPath enhances the PowerPick software program with a REST API, advanced analytics, and other software tools,” says Bill deVries, President of ItemPath Inc. “The combination of the two programs gives users an increasingly rich set of features that helps them better manage things involving their Kardex systems.”

“ItemPath provides a wide suite of features that enhance our flagship PowerPick software,” says Johan Jonsson, Kardex’s VP of Life Cycle Service. “Our partnership allows us to stay agile, further tailor our solutions, and bring value to our customers.”

Together, the two companies will be able to offer higher levels of customer support. With their combined expertise and extensive knowledge of PowerPick Global software, they will specialize in providing customized solutions to customers with additional software needs.
